 - c) deal with each case equitably compared with other cases;
 - d) make the decision on evidence relevant to the issue;
 - e) use standards which are reasonable and appropriate to the specific case;
 - f) not allow extraneous considerations to affect the decision.

The Committees and panel will make any decision based on the Sentencing Guidelines in operation at the time and bearing in mind the principles of natural justice.

7.6 ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS

7.6.1 The same order of proceedings shall apply to all Judiciary hearings unless stipulated by the chairperson.

7.6.2 The chairperson will determine the order of proceedings; however usually:

- a) The chairperson will read the charge aloud;
- b) The Person concerned or his representative will:
 - admit the Offence; or
 - deny the Offence
- c) The prosecuting party will present the case;
- d) The Person charged or their representative will be given the opportunity to respond to those submissions;
- e) The Person charged or their representative will present their case;
- f) The prosecuting party will be given the opportunity to respond to those submissions;
- g) The Person charged or their representative will be given the final word;
- h) If the Person charged denies the Offence the tribunal will consider whether the Offence was committed and only if the Committee find that the Person has committed an Offence will it then go on to consider the appropriate sanction. The Committee will consider all evidence available to them before making a decision;
- i) If the Person admits the Offence or if the Committee decides that an Offence was committed then the Person will have the opportunity to make submissions to the Committee in relation to the appropriate sanction. The Committee will then determine the appropriate sanction as set out in 7.8 Sanctions, above.

7.7 EVIDENCE

7.7.1 The Committees will consider all available evidence to them. This will usually include a Match Official's written report, which the Match Official must ensure is completed and forwarded to the LRLF within 48-hrs of the end of the match, and any evidence supplied by the Person facing a charge. Recordings of other incidents in the match or other matches will not be admitted as evidence.

7.7.2 The committees will consider DVD evidence where possible and may open and adjourn a case if DVD evidence is not available at the time. The Disciplinary Committees will not usually hear verbal evidence from witnesses, but the Appeals Panel may.

7.8 ADJUDICATIONS

- 7.8.1 The chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee will usually deliver the sentence in writing to the Person and their parent organisation within 24-hours of the Committee reaching its verdict.
- 7.8.2 The chairperson of the Appeals Panel will usually read the tribunal's adjudication at the conclusion of the meeting and a written version will be available within 5 days.
- 7.8.3 In the case of both Disciplinary Committee and Appeals Panel hearings, the adjudication will:
- a) Include all aggravating and/or mitigating factors taken into consideration;
 - b) Explain any deviation from the Sentencing Guidelines;
 - c) Give clear and full reasons for the decision.
- 7.8.4 The Player charged has no right of access to the deliberations of the Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Panel.

8 MISCONDUCT

8.1 BEHAVIOUR CONSIDERED MISCONDUCT

- 8.1.1 All players, coaches and officials acknowledge that their behaviour shall at all times be of the highest standard. All Members and Institutions shall ensure that their Players, Coaches, Volunteers and Officials are bound by the provisions of these Operational Rules or any relevant Competition Rules relating to Misconduct.

8.2 PROCEEDINGS FOR BREACH

- 8.2.1 In any case where a Member and/or Institution, Player or Official has failed to comply with a provision of these Operational Rules, proceedings may be taken against that team, player or official for that failure, and a penalty imposed.
- 8.2.2 If any person reasonably believes that any player or official is guilty of Misconduct he or she must immediately inform the Executive in writing setting out all relevant details of the alleged misconduct.

- 8.2.3 Upon becoming aware of a potential act of Misconduct the LRLF may investigate or appoint someone to investigate any allegation of any breach. The LRLF will investigate or have the power to appoint investigators to investigate all allegations of Misconduct and decide whether there is a case to answer. If the Executive believes there is a case to answer the case will be referred to a Misconduct Panel.

8.3 BURDEN AND STANDARD OF PROOF

- 8.3.1 The LRLF shall have the burden of establishing that Misconduct has occurred.
- 8.3.2 The standard of proof shall be whether the LRLF has established that Misconduct has occurred to the reasonable satisfaction of the hearing body bearing in mind the seriousness of the allegation which is being made. This standard of proof in all cases is greater than a mere balance of probability but less than proof beyond a reasonable doubt.
- 8.3.3 Where a Person Subject to the Operational Rules wishes to rebut an allegation or charge of Misconduct or establish specified facts or circumstances, the standard of proof shall be by a balance of probability.

8.4 MISCONDUCT PANEL

- 8.4.1 The Misconduct Panel will be appointed by the LRLF and will consist of a chairperson with appropriate experience in sports administration or legal qualifications and two side members with experience in the Game.
- 8.4.2 The LRLF shall be entitled to appoint a representative to present the case on its behalf. In every case, the LRLF (or its appointed representative) bears the onus of proof on the balance of probabilities.
- 8.4.3 In every case, it shall be the Misconduct Panel's task to decide every question of law, evidence and / or procedure. The chairperson shall in his/her absolute discretion give such instructions or directions as he/she thinks fit to the Misconduct Panel as to matters of law, evidence and / or procedure. The chairperson may give whatever directions and make all such orders as he/she in his/her absolute discretion deems fit for the conduct, expedition and resolution of matters heard by the Misconduct Panel.

8.5 HEARING

- 8.5.1 The hearing shall take place in accordance with such procedures that the chairperson shall think fit but can replicate the order of proceedings described in section 7.6.2. However, any person appearing before the Panel may be accompanied by a solicitor or by such other person as he/she may require.

8.5.2 The Misconduct Panel shall decide whether the case is proven and if so may impose a penalty which may involve a caution and/or fine and/or costs of a Player, Official and/or team or the suspension or expulsion of a Player, Official or Member and Institution.

8.5.3 Where the penalty imposed on a Player or Official includes a fine and/or costs these may be paid by the Member and Institution of that Player or Official or by that Player or Official.

8.6 APPEALS

8.6.1 Any Person, Member and/or Institution (or affiliated team) who is found guilty by the Misconduct Panel shall have the right of appeal. Such appeal is to be made in writing and lodged with the Executive within 48 hours of the decision of the Panel. The filing of an appeal shall not operate to stay the original decision of the original Misconduct Panel and should include the grounds for appeal:

- a) finding of guilt,
- b) severity of sanction;
- c) both.

8.6.2 Notice of appeal should be accompanied by a deposit of 75,000LL. This deposit will ordinarily be forfeited if the appeal is dismissed, however at its discretion the Appeals Panel may return the deposit even if the appeal is dismissed.

8.6.3 An Appeals Committee hearing is not a de novo hearing and shall hear and determine appeals by way of a review and will admit only new evidence or witnesses which were not available at the time of the first hearing.

8.7 ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS AND COMPOSITION

8.7.1 The Appeals Panel will be appointed by the LRLF and will consist of a chairperson with appropriate experience in sports administration or legal qualifications and two side members with experience in the Game.
